offender's girlfriend then opened the door and told the offender that he was not allowed to come in. Jordan stated the offender's girlfriend tried to shut the door, but the offender put his foot in the door stopping his girlfriend from closing the door. Jordan stated the offender then forced his way into the residence and began arguing with his girlfriend and causing a disturbance. Jordan then told the offender to get out of his apartment; however, the offender refused. Jordan stated the offender continued to argue with his girlfriend and ignored his demands to leave his residence. Jordan told the offender to get the "f#ck out of his house." Jordan stated the offender became angrier and took a black spear that was hanging against the wall in the living area and threw it at him. Jordan stated that he then went into the kitchen to get a knife. When the offender saw Jordan going into the kitchen, he fled the scene. Jordan advised the officer that he was shaken by the incident and that he was afraid the offender would return and do harm to him. The offender was subsequently charged with the offense of burglary of habitation in the 228th District Court of Harris County, Texas, Cause No. 1622154. On March 3, 2019, the offender surrendered to the Harris County Sheriff's Office. On March 5, 2019, he was released on a $15,000 bond. As of this date, the next Court setting is pending.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

The offender is currently employed and has been in compliance with his conditions of supervised release prior to this incident. He also successfully completed substance abuse treatment. The offender notified this U.S. Probation Officer of this incident. This offender respectfully recommends that no adverse action be taken at this time pending the disposition of the current law violation, and that the Court reserve the right to reconsider this violation if further noncompliant behavior continues. The probation officer will continue to monitor the State case and advise the Court of its final disposition.
